Breezi's Values

Equal Opportunity

We believe that everyone should have a fair access to career opportunities.

We provide our courses to help everyone access opportunities in a fair manner. We do this by setting our prices so that it's affordable by all income classes.

Best Quality

Our courses have been conducted across borders and continents and are the results of years of work and feedback with an incredibly high satisfaction rate. They are very practical and based on real experiences. We believe in having fun while learning allowing everyone to be themselves.

Honesty

We don't lie to you about what we are offering and make unrealistic promises. Learning public speaking skills require time, practice & feedback and cannot be done in 1 day. We tell you the truth & provide you with a safe and supporting environment where you can practice and receive feedback.

What People Say

Breezi Speaking are a great organisation to deal with - they listened to what we wanted and did what we asked them to do to a very high standard...I recommend Breezi Speaking without reservation.

Chris, CEO

Ali's energy kept me interested the whole time, it was great! He covered a good amount of material in a short time. He taught useful tricks that most would never think of during speech.

Guoda, Student

I have never been so confident of my own voice as I am now. I recommend this enthusiastic team to anyone who likes to go outside their comfort zone and learn one of the most difficult skill of all times.

Our Courses

Communication Mastery Series

Our Public Speaking programme that is offered to individual consists of 3 Levels. Each level is completed in a 4-hour workshop at our centre in Kuala Lumpur. Topics covered and practiced in this series include dealing with nervousness, structuring presentations and using some advanced skills.

Personal Mentoring Programme

For individuals with specific needs or those who are not confident enough to join group workshops offered in the Communication Mastery Series, we offer personal mentoring. In this 1-to-1 programme, we tailor a course specifically to the trainee's needs and learning objectives.

In-House Trainings On Demand

This offering is mainly for companies, organisations, and schools. If your company is looking to cultivate new skills in employees or your school wants to have a day of learning and practicing soft skills, we can provide that in

- A) 2 to 16-hour workshops
- B) Weekly programmes
